Fast and Abstinence during Lent

- Those 21 to 59 years of age are bound to fast and abstain according to the laws of Holy Mother the Church during the Lenten Season (excluding Sundays), unless lawfully dispensed.
- On a day of fast, only one full meal is allowed, with two smaller meatless meals, sufficient to maintain one's strength. The two smaller meals together may not equal another full meal.
- The law of fasting binds under pain of serious sin. Those who are ill, convalescent, in delicate health, pregnant or nursing are lawfully excused. Those employed in strenuous manual labor, provided they work a great part of the day, are lawfully excused as well (farmers, millworkers, etc.)

Why must we fast, abstain from meat, and do penance?

1. To make atonement for our sins
2. To curb our fallen human nature, which continually battles against the spirit

Our Lord said, "Unless you shall do penance, you shall all likewise perish."
(Luke 13:3)

With every sin we commit, there are two aspects needing repair, the guilt incurred from the sin and the temporal punishment due to the sin. For example, if a young boy breaks his neighbor's window with a baseball, he will need to apologize to the neighbor, asking for forgiveness from his guilt of wrong doing, and he will need to fix the window, that is, make up for the damage done. The same concept applies to when we commit sin. When we go to confession and are sorry for our sins and resolve to do better (that is, resolve to avoid future sins), the guilt is remitted, washed away, forgiven by the priest's absolution.

After absolution, there still remains on our soul the temporal punishment due to those sins, which is the spiritual damage we have to repair. Ways of making atonement for our temporal punishment include fasting, abstaining, extra prayers, receiving the sacraments of Penance and Holy Eucharist often, giving alms, performing works of charity, offering up and patiently bearing the cross of our daily duty, and other voluntary acts of penance and sacrifice. If we do not make sufficient atonement for our sins now, we will go to purgatory after we die.

1st Friday: Benediction and Sacred Heart devotions after 6:00 PM Mass

1st Saturday: Rosary and Fatima devotions after 9:00 AM Mass

2nd Sunday: Blessing of religious articles.

3rd Sunday: Breakfast to benefit the church.

St. Joseph Novena Prayer

(to be prayed after every Mass)

O glorious St. Joseph,* faithful follower of Jesus Christ,* to thee do we raise our hearts and hands* to implore thy powerful intercession* in obtaining from the benign Heart of Jesus* all the helps and graces necessary* for our spiritual and temporal welfare,* particularly the grace of a happy death,* and the special favor we now implore* – the maintenance and needs of our church.

O Guardian of the Word Incarnate,* we feel animated with confidence* that thy prayers in our behalf* will be graciously heard before the throne of God.* O glorious St. Joseph,* through the love thou dost bear to Jesus Christ,* and for the glory of His Name,* hear our prayers and obtain our petitions.* Amen.
